

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

The Client should take specific note that Southern Off-Road merely acts as an Agent in arranging and negotiating a rental vehicle on behalf of the Consumer with various service providers, who provide the rental vehicle to the Consumer. Southern Off- Road merely render our professional services with the arranging and negotiation of a rental vehicle on behalf of the Consumer with the various service providers. The Client by making use of our services should acknowledge the risk involved in the rental of a 4x4 vehicle for the using of driving purposes, on either tar, sand, gravel or any other pathways, and declare themselves to be fully acquainted with all the risks involved in using the vehicle for the specific purpose they intend for. They should specifically read our website with regard to instructions on how to drive on gravel, sand, uneven pathways etc., and by making use of our services you acknowledge that Southern Off Road has provided you with all safety and usage instructions and any other necessary information regarding the vehicle and safe handling thereof, as well as instructions for the specific purpose you intend to use the vehicle for in advance, which you hereby declare to understand and to be fully acquainted with. You hereby confirm that you are in the possession of a valid driver`s license for the legal driving of the rental vehicle for the purpose you intend for, and if not so, that you will not drive the vehicle if not in possession of a valid driver`s license for the driving thereof.

Refund Policy

By making use of our services, you hereby indemnify Southern Off Road against any and all claims of whatsoever nature which may arise due to not adhering to any safety, usage instructions and any other information as provided for in our website, which includes claims for harm/damage cause to you or any other person in the vehicle whilst the driving thereof, due to reasons beyond the reasonable control or unintentional act of any person. This will include any economical lost pertaining to the harm/damage caused.